

Media in the Arab World

Ms. Asfahan Bahaloul

Course Number: 702.2972

Class Tie: TBA

Class Location: Room 726 Main Bldg.

E-Mail: asfahanstudy@gmail.com

Course Description:

The course will survey the development of printed and electronic media in the Arab world since the advent of the 19th century to the present day, emphasizing the most important landmarks. The course will survey Western media in the Arabic language as well and its role in shaping public opinion in the Arab world. Part of the course will be devoted to analyzing digital media (satellite TV stations as well as the Internet developed in the 90s). A large part will be devoted to analyzing social media (Blogs, Facebook, Twitter ...) that played an important role in the Arab Spring. The course will also deal with Palestinian media in the Palestinian Authority as well as Palestinian media in Israel. In addition, the course will focus on analyzing the meaning of Collective Memory in general and in the Arab newspapers, more specifically. It will also deal with two important narratives within Arab – Israeli-Jewish society: the Nakba and the Holocaust.

Course Requirements:

- Weekly Reading articles
- Reading Assignments
- Class Participation
- Oral Presentation
- Term Paper based on a book
- Take-Home Exam- Undergraduate students will write a take-home exam, to be distributed at the end our last meeting. Students will be requested to answer three (out of five) comprehensive essay questions that will test the students' knowledge and understanding of the readings, the lectures, and class discussions.
