

Career Opportunities in the Field of Peace and Conflict Management

This list is to give students who will graduate from the MA Program in Peace and Conflict Management Studies an idea of the jobs that await them once they graduate. Students are, by no means, restricted to this list, nor is this a complete list of every job available. It is simply a general list of possibilities.

Work Areas

- Academia
- Government Organizations
- Intergovernmental Institutions
- International Development Organizations & Relief Agencies
- Non-Governmental Organizations (local, national, regional and international)
- News & Media
- Think Tanks or Policy Institutes
- Non-Profit Organizations

Organizations & Networks

- Abraham Fund Initiatives
- Alliance for International Conflict Resolution
- Alliance for Peacebuilding
- American-Mideast Education & Training Services
- Association of Conflict Resolution
- British Overseas Development Work
- Canadian International Development Agency
- CARE
- European Peacebuilding Liaison Office
- Foreign Policy Association
- German Federal Foreign Office
- Idealist
- Inter-Agency Standing Committee
- International Committee of the Red Cross
- IsraAID
- OCHA
- Oxfam
- Peace Corps

- Peace & Justice Studies Association
- Redhum
- United States Agency for International Development
- Women in International Security

Job Titles

- Program Manager
- Project Consultant
- Membership Manager
- Volunteer Coordinator
- Aid Worker
- Special Advisor/Consultant
- Analyst
- Humanitarian officer
- Development and Operations Coordinator
- Outreach & Recruitment Manager
- Logistics Manager
- Director of Programming
- Media Relations Coordinator
- Spokesperson
- Human Rights Worker
- Training and Talent Manager
- Program Development Officer
- Program Assistant
- Human Factors Specialist